

RISING STAR AWARD

PRESENTED TO:

TANISI MALHOTRA

The Rising Star Award celebrates young individuals who make a significant impact in their schools and neighborhoods, inspiring others through their actions and promoting kindness and service.

Nominated by: Brooke Krey

Summary of Nomination:

Tanisi is an extraordinary young woman who consistently demonstrates kindness, leadership, and a commitment to service, both within her school and throughout the community. She brings a positive energy to every environment she enters, and her dedication to fostering a welcoming and supportive atmosphere is evident in everything she does.

In addition to her strong academic achievements and active participation in extracurricular activities, Tanisi has made a remarkable impact through her service on the District 10 Youth Advisory. Working with peers and community members, she helped identify and improve opportunities for youth, both within the school and the wider neighborhood. Tanisi stood out as a thoughtful leader, asking insightful questions, guiding discussions, and helping turn ideas into practical solutions. Her proactive approach and teamwork were key to the advisory's success.

Tanisi also contributed to the Police Department's e-bike campaign, promoting safe riding and raising awareness about traffic safety. Her efforts helped make the community's streets safer for everyone and demonstrated her commitment to service beyond the classroom.

On behalf of the Village, we honor Tanisi with the Rising Star Award. Her heart, determination, and leadership have left a mark on her school and community, showing what is possible when someone leads with care and purpose..
